Biofunctional activated carbon filter

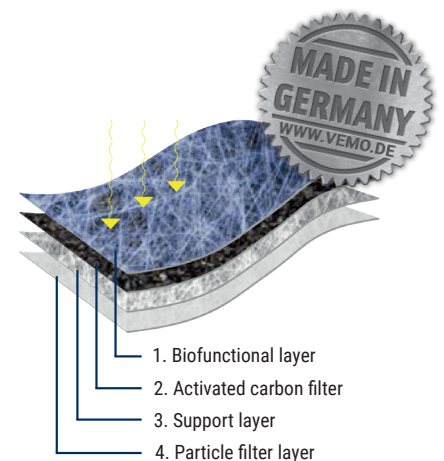

WHY VEMO'S BIOFUNCTIONAL FILTER?

Due to the high levels of particulate matter in road traffic, biofunctional activated carbon filters are becoming increasingly popular among drivers as a means of protecting themselves from these influences.

With VEMO, biofunctional activated carbon filters with an anti-allergenic and antimicrobial coating now offer you 99.9% removal of fine dust, allergens, exhaust gases and pollutants from the air flowing in from outside and air inside the vehicle.

With our premium quality - MADE IN GERMANY as well as a high market coverage and availability, we bring with VEMO a refreshing and unencumbered well-being into the vehicle interior.
